

503.2

COMMUNICATIONS WITH PARENTS

Communications pertaining to a student's education including routine notices, attendance information, scholastic reports, behavior commentaries, and other information ordinarily furnished to homes shall be provided to parent(s) or guardian(s) who have legal custody of the student. In cases where joint custody of the child exists but the parent(s) or guardian(s) are separated or divorced, all communicated information shall be provided to the parent or guardian with whom the student resides. The other parent with joint custody shall be placed on the district's mailing list, upon request.

APPROVED: BOARD OF EDUCATION
March 17, 1992