

2016-10-19 PTC Meeting Notes

- Amber shared PTC current balance
- Fundraiser ideas were discussed:
  - Raffle calendar (one month only) – gift basket donations from community, PTC members
  - 50-50 raffle at Winter Carnival & Snodeo
  - Stickers (for car)
  - Silent auction
- Book Fair
  - Overall a success, Jolene felt it went well.
  - Ideas for next Book Fair:
    - A separate $5 and under book table
    - Theme– ideally would like to be consistent with PARP theme
    - Have a PTC sign-up table during family night
    - Invite Kinderwood
  - The PTC would like to donate back the credits (scholar dollars) earned:
    - 1 free book for each child next time
    - Donate back to teachers for needed supplies
- Announcing PTC Meetings and Events
  - Advertising in both local newspapers is free to the PTC (any NFP organization) – Going forward it was suggested that all PTC meetings and events (i.e.: Book Fair) be advertised via the Weekly and Express newspapers
- Faculty request
  - The school faculty has requested a portable popcorn maker for school events including sport functions, plays, etc. Katie to research. One attendee also suggested this as a senior class donation option.
- Santa's Secret Shop
  - Secret Santa will be held on 12/2 (Fri) and 12/5 (Mon)
  - Erin Burns to ask Mr. Swick if PTC can set up early
  - Katie will talk to Diane H. to see if Kinderwood would like to participate this year
- Athletic Code of Conduct
  - Bob DiOrio provided a background of why the Athletic Code of Conduct is under review, and a recap of the proposed changes
  - Decision was made to schedule a separate meeting for parents to discuss this topic on Nov 2nd
    - Erin to ask Mr. Tanner and Katie to ask Ms. Brownsell to attend that meeting to field questions
    - An email will be sent to parents announcing the meeting, and the need to come prepared to participate with questions & feedback. Email to include links to the current code, proposed code, and feedback link
- Webb Way

- The group discussed the possibility of joining forces with the Webb Way, to collaborate in fundraising efforts
- Katie will discuss with Mr. Swick and Judy Ehrensbeck
